

Short introduction to Powernet, the ADC5000 range and Scanpocon

About POWERNET

Powernet is a Finnish company specializing in the design and manufacturing of power supplies, battery chargers, inverters and power supply systems. In Finland Powernet have manufacturing plant in Äänekoski and R&D and marketing office in Vantaa close to Helsinki airport. Outside of Finland Powernet have contract manufacturers for high volume products and active "Power Partners" covering specific markets and regions. Total number of employees is over 90 with R&D counting for 11.

Power Partner

Real partnership is the key word in the operation of Powernet and SCANPOCON who represents Powernet. We listen to our customers needs and find together the optimal power solution. We regularly measure the customer satisfaction and use the results to develop our activities. Working with us confirms the full life cycle management support including maintenance, technical support, product revision updates as well as the new product developments.

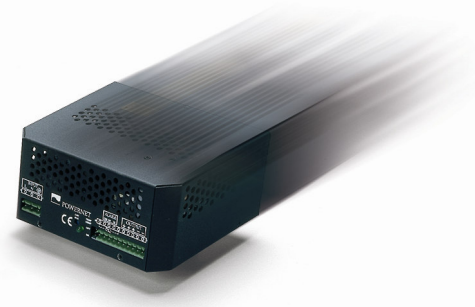

---

About ADC5000

ADC5000-series is a series of standard power supplies and chargers. They have been developed for the most demanding applications and proved very reliable in areas of operations such as: Windmills, energy systems, maritime, industrial, off shore etc.

Key specs

- Very low ripple (ensures long battery life time)
- Temp. regulated charging
- MTBF 3.000.000 hours (calculated)
- Adjustable output, built in diodes, alarm circuit
- UL-version available
- Robust design versions available

---

About SCANPOCON

SCANPOCON is a specialist in UPS, chargers, inverters and power supply solutions. The company has more than 20 years experience in standard and custom made solutions and hold a leading position. SCANPOCON employs 26 people and has a dedicated workshop capable of making all kinds of special products and modifications. We also have a "24-hour" service concept on all UPS and DC-backup systems. Expected turnover in 2008: DKK 80mio.

SCANPOCON is part of the Scandinavian "Coromatic Group". Other members of this group are Metric ab (Norway), Metric Power (Sweden) and Coromatic (Sweden). The group is owned by the management and Litorina Kapital. Sharing many of the same suppliers, we benefit from the cooperation with Metric and Coromatic and belonging to a financially strong group SCANPOCON will remain a competent and reliable partner also in the future - for our customers as well as our suppliers.